Strong class despite the vintage stress. Golds in radically different styles. One showing lovely flavour already, the other with its life in front of it.

Some contention in the top gold area but good winemaking standards in a difficult year. The variety is being handled with thought and skill and producing wines that will handle more age.

Class Comments

Strong class - testament to the aging ability of Hunter Semillon. Pity about the corked effect on many of these wines.

Some very good winemaking from a difficult year. Some very tannic wine in otherwise lightly structured wines.

Class Comments

A great class of semillons with youthful and developed wines of excellent quality. It would be of interest to even the judging by seeing all of these in stelvin closures but the classic development in many of the wines may be delayed to such an extent that some of us would be gone before the pleasurable task of pointing them!
