Class Comments

Somewhat plain overall, but three golds of high quality and diverse style. There was considerable merit in the higher pointed silver medals. Premature development in lesser wines a worry.

Class Comments

A couple of nice wines in an otherwise lacklustre class. Lack of varietal character was the main issue.

Great line up of Shiraz. As expected the 2003's were exceptionally strong. However a disappointing number of plain wines.

Many wines simple and lacking concentration. Top two wines good examples of then and now Hunter Chardonnay.

Another example of why the Hunter should "stick to the knitting". Nearly all these wines were devoid of flavour.

Wow. Actually quite difficult to judge, simply because of the abundance of great mature Semillons; forcing a ranking seemed a little unfair, but that's the rule.

Class Comments

Judges were expecting more from this class. Oak handling, premature development and oxidation the main issues. The two golds were both lovely examples of what the region can achieve.
