Class Comments

A very mixed bag. Some well made wines expressing varietal/regional fruit very well. Under-ripeness was common as was dullness of fruit and phenolics.

Class Comments

A few exhibits stood out in a class of generally plain wines which lacked fruit intensity and character. Pleasing to see a lack of over sweet wines.

Class Comments

Strong class as expected with the top wines exhibiting the strength of the Hunter. However, it is disappointing to see a number of poorly made and over-oaked wines.

Class Comments

A few good wines that show restraint and good management of barrel ferment inputs. Too many prematurely developed, coarse and/or over-oaked wines.

Class Comments

An excellent class. Many first class wines that do great credit to their makers. Top gold is a superb medium-weight regional style. A cautionary note to entrants on brettanomyces which has crept into several wines.

Class Comments

Very diverse class. A number of wines had out of balance sugar and/or acid and lacking complexity. Only one wine of the required standard.

Some lovely old wines of various styles. Some are tiring quite badly, others ageing gracefully. Cork issues obviously had some influence. One outstanding exhibit - a classic example of mature Hunter Semillon.

Class Comments

Top wine has obvious viognier addition but enough savoury shiraz fruit to fill out the palate. A very strong class of Hunter Shiraz.

Class Comments

Good medal strike rate, especially considering the vintage. Gold medal wines represent different styles. Good use of residual sugar in some cases.

Some attractive fresh wines, but too many were broad and developed. Gold medal shows excellent freshness and texture.

Class Comments

Disappointing. Many wines carrying too much sugar for the fruit weight. A number showing premature development, others just lacking flavour.
