Class Comments

Top two wines were the shining lights in the class. Both representative of two different and valid styles of chardonnay. Main faults were oxidation and ferment issues

Class Comments

As usual with verdelho, phenolics is an issue. Also fermentation issues were evident. However top wines were balanced and showed good verdelho expression.

Class Comments

A solid and fantastic class to judge. The top wine outstanding and a class above. Lesser wines lacked drive and concentration. From a cooler vintage avoiding green, herbal characters was key.

Class Comments

This one gets the prize for the most improved class of the Show. Top wines are lovely expressions of their variety. However, there are still some brett & oak issues hanging around.

Class Comments

Top wines show good varietal definition in two different and valid styles. Others showing too broad & developed for age or excessive oak for fruit weight.

Class Comments

Top wine a classic Hunter and world class wine. A delight to judge with the older wine holding its own in a strong class. Lesser wines under ripe and under fruited.

Class Comments

Very strong class. Unfortunately, many wines handicapped by cork. Top wines are a shining beacon for aged semillon.

Class Comments

These wines were a pleasure to judge. Very strong & hotly contested class. Top wines show the essence of Hunter Valley Semillon. However, a few showed premature development.

Class Comments

The two golds represent two styles. No. 4 crisp and chablis - the other complex and creamy.
