Class 012020 Semillon

Judges: David Brookes, Jeff Byrne, Bryan Currie, Aaron Mercer, Sophie Otton, Nick Spencer, Adam Walls, Nicole Wilson, Shanteh Wong, Iain Riggs (Judge)

Entered: 30

Judged: 30

Class comments: Winemakers seem to have snapped victory from the jaws of defeat... the zesty limey semillons, pure of fruit with great velocity and drive ruled the day. Some great wines in the mix. Some issues with stinky ferments, some taint noticeable but the wines at the pointy end provide beautiful, true, renditions of this classic grape variety.

Entered: 60

Class comments: Quite a strong class with numerous highlights. Three golds revealed, from purity and finesse graduating to a fuller more generous styles.
As expected, a very strong class from a good vintage across a range of styles from pure, lean driven classics to more expansive early drinking wines. Top wines showed purity, detail and clarity with porcelain palate shapes.
Strong class, with some lower scored wines having some premature development and ferment management issues, the top wines showing purity of fruit and precision.
