Class Comments

Solid class, but many non- award winners showed hollowness and lacked punch and drive . Top award winners were balanced and showed great drinkability now but will also age admirably.

Class Comments

Sadly not a strong class. Too many hot and abrasives wines on one hand, sour and brittle on the other. Balance and drinkability bore medals

Class Comments

Fairly good class with the gold being a style that Hunter Winemakers should strive for. Fresh, balanced yet awesomely drinkable. Major faults in non-award over sweetening or simply broad and phenolic

Class Comments

Trash & Treasure class with non- award winners.being overripe & broad with excessive oak. Top wines showing great balance of flavour, oak and winemaker influence, which is pleasing to see. Hunter 2014 Chardonnay is one to look out for.

Disappointing Class. Too many jarring characters - sulphide, phenolics and sweetness. Take care with harvesting too ripe- wines don't age well

Class Comments

Superb class which shows the hype of the 2014 Shiraz from the Hunter not to be a myth. Top wines had beautiful fruit with good oak balance and will be treasures for years to come. Major negative on the wines was the overuse of new oak on the wines which dominated the fruit, but hopefully in time this will integrate to become classic aged Hunter Shiraz. Stock up on the 14 vintage customers it's a cracker. Super class of wines, a couple of classics hunter examples and some beautiful contemporary styles covering all bases for gold. Fresh bright and balanced .

Class Comments

A strong class. A lot of work and focus going into alternate varieties and blends. Good to see a high level of durability reflecting a high medal count . Wines without medals were too simple as opposed to faulty which is again good to see.

Class Comments

Great class showing the strength of the 2013 +2011 Vintage . Top gold has poise+ beautiful hunter shiraz vitallity, whilst non award winners were either advanced or over-oaked . Overall though- the best class we have judged this week. Excellent class of Shiraz . Classic , medium bodied Hunter styles were enjoyed and savoured highly . Oak still featured a little too much , Save your money.

Class Comments

2007 I'm in heaven. Top wines were still bright and clean and showing brilliant fruit, yet had ageing characters mingled in the flavours . It shows when Hunter has a great vintage the wines will last for many years and be icons for people to taste in decades to come. Great pleasure

Class Comments

2015 is a vintage which will be more elegant and structured compared to other Hunter vintages. The wines that were given high medals are drinkable now but will live for many years to come. Tough Vintage - Yes - but there is some gold at the end of the Rainbow .

Class Comments

Very very good class shows the strength of the 2014 Hunter Vintage. These wines have great poise and grounding and many of them which got Bronze or silver will grow to be some of the best Shiraz's from the region for many years. Golds were given to wines of structure and balance and drinkability now (with an idea on how they will age) one of the better Shiraz classes the panel has ever seen. A joy to judge. Revel in these rare years and stock up

Some interesting styles sparked debate . A slight lack of depth on one hand. A slightly too sweet a finish on the other, just held back gold, However we would expect this class to give rise to gold in the future .
